Marking and Feedback Policy

Date:	September 2019	Review Date:	September 2020
-------	----------------	--------------	----------------

At Emmaville Primary School, marking should give opportunities for the children to be involved in the assessment of their own work, to explain their thinking and for the teachers to identify the pupils' next learning goal.

We believe that all work recorded in books must be marked, assessed or acknowledged as soon as possible after it is completed as this shows how much value we place on children's achievements.

We approach marking as an essential tool for planning, assessment, evaluation, learning and target setting. By responding to pupils' work through constructive and positive comments that are matched against learning objectives, we are able to acknowledge successes, promote a pride in personal achievement and improve standards of both teaching and learning. We would like all children to become reflective learners in order for them to improve their performance.

We feel it is essential to have in place a marking code that is relevant to the phase, is consistently used throughout the school, is linked to National Curriculum requirements and Early Learning Goals and is clearly understood by the children and their parents.

Book marking is only one component of the feedback role of Key Stage 1 and 2 staff and is used to inform children of the standard of their work. We also recognise that much of the pupils' work in Foundation Stage is practical; therefore book marking in this phase is a relatively small component of the marking and feedback role of the Foundation Stage staff. This does not mean that the marking policy is any less stringent for Foundation Stage pupils.

In short, the purpose of Emmaville's marking policy is to:

- ❖ Aid learning
- ❖ Assist in assessing and informing planning
- ❖ Encourage and promote a pride in achievement
- ❖ Motivate pupils and promote a positive attitude to learning
- ❖ Demonstrate to pupils a purpose and interest in their work
- ❖ Foster discussions between teacher/teaching assistant and pupil
- ❖ Promote good learning and working practices
- ❖ Allow pupils to reflect on their own performance
- ❖ Ensure comparability between all staff members responsible for marking
- ❖ Assist in raising standards of teaching

Aims

- To develop children's self-esteem and motivation by showing them that we value their effort and achievement.
- To identify areas for improvement in order for children to achieve their set targets.
- To provide an assessment record of children's achievement and progress allowing teachers to plan for the next stage of children's learning.
- To have in place a manageable and effective system of marking and feedback.
